

MORGAN CATALOGUE IS A WORK OF ART

Present to Library Contains Reproductions of Ninety Beautiful Miniatures.

One of the most beautiful books in the Library of Congress, according to experts in such matters, is the catalogue of miniatures in his collection recently given to that institution by J. Pierpont Morgan.

Only twenty copies of this book, or rather of these books, for the catalogue comprises a set of three volumes, have been printed. The Queen of England and President Roosevelt have both received copies.

The books were compiled under the personal direction of Dr. C. G. Williamson, a noted miniature expert, and were printed privately at the Cheswick press. The books are covered by plush-lined boxes, and are kept in the prints division in special cases designed for treasures of art. It is expected that they will be the object toward which the eyes of hundreds of artists, book lovers, and connoisseurs will turn.

The binding of the books is white vellum with hand hammered oxidized silver shield in the center of each cover. The corners and clasps are also of silver and on the shields and corners are very small initials and monograms of some of the artists represented in the book.

There are ninety miniatures in the three volumes, and it is understood that the utmost precautions were taken to prevent the entrance of even one speck of dust into the pigment of the pictures. When the room in which the reproductions were made had to be ventilated, the miniatures were put away temporarily in air-tight cases.

The Morgan collection dates back to the origin of miniature painting, and is a most excellent array of the portraits of King and Queens and other personages of high rank. One of the most famous miniatures in the whole collection is of Queen Elizabeth, by Nicolas Hilliard, the reproduction of which forms the frontispiece for volume one of the catalogue.

SHE LOSES ASHES OF DEAD HUSBAND

New York Woman Recovers Gruesome Relic of Dear Departed in Indiana Town.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—A small valise containing ashes of her husband, was lost by Mrs. Frances J. Hollis, of Schenectady, N. Y., at Cincinnati. They were in her valise, and were ordered shipped to Richmond, Ind., where they were finally located.

Five years ago, Mrs. Hollis was married in Paris. She and her husband made a compact that the body of the one who died first should be cremated and the ashes always kept in the possession of the survivor. A year ago, Hollis died, and his wife kept her promise.

Langham, president of the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society, today advised Superintendent of Insurance Otis Kelsey that he had disposed of a large portion of his stock in the Provident Savings Life to Judge Nash Rockwood, of Saratoga, and James L. Scott, vice president of the Adirondack Trust Company, of Saratoga. William E. Ellison resigns as vice president and director, and George C. Clarke resigns as director. Mr. Langham's telegram says no other change is contemplated.

PEARY CONFIDENT OF REACHING POLE

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, Oct. 2.—Having transferred a large supply of stores to the Peary Arctic steamer Roosevelt at Etah, West Greenland, the auxiliary steamer Erik has arrived here. The Roosevelt left Etah on August 18, bound north through Kane Basin, Kennedy Channel and Robeson Strait. It is Peary's hope either to enter the Polar sea or to reach a point from which he can easily get to Cape Columbia by next February. Then he will make a dash across the ice floes toward the pole. Captain Bartlett states that the Roosevelt was in excellent trim and the crew all well. The ice conditions were favorable.

DISAPPOINTED EXPERTS

WINNIFRED S. STONER.

Who Was to Have Made Address in Esperanto Before Phthisis Congress.

Delegates and visitors to the Tuberculosis Congress are deeply disappointed that Little Winnifred S. Stoner, a lot of five, who is an expert in the use of Esperanto, will be unable to attend the sessions. Little Miss Stoner was to have delivered an address in Esperanto before the congress, and her appearance was anticipated with the keenest interest.

The little girl is five years old and is the only person of her age in the world who holds a diploma for Esperanto. She understands the language perfectly and converses with the greatest ease.

Until yesterday it was expected that Little Miss Stoner would come to Washington, but word reached here that her father became suddenly ill at their home in Evansville, Ind., and it would be impossible for her to come.

One woman of the party of six that occupied the machine was killed outright. One man was so badly injured that he died at 3 o'clock this morning.

About $5,000 of the savings of the poor is involved.

MAMMOTH LINERS PUZZLE OFFICIALS

Englishmen Fear 60,000-Ton
Boats Can't Be Docked.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—British shipbuilding experts are puzzled to know how the White Star officials will land passengers and cargo from the line's two prospective 60,000 tonners, the Titanic and Olympic.

The Mauretania and Lusitania, of not much more than half the proposed craft's tonnage, have no more room than they need to get through the Ambrose channel and into the Mersey at Liverpool.

The popular opinion here is that a vessel of 60,000 tons would have to do its loading and unloading at sea. Marine statisticians have figured that the tonnage of the entire Spanish armada of 129 ships, which tried to land an army in England in Queen Elizabeth's reign, was only 53,200.

Considerable progress is being made with construction work on the Olympic in Harland & Wolff's yard at Belfast, but the Titanic's keel blocks will not be laid until January.

FIREMEN BURIED IN MASS OF FLAME

Roof of Burning Building Gives Way, Carrying Three, at Least, to Death.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Oct. 2.—Carried on a falling roof into the flames, which were devouring the interior of S. H. Knox & Co.'s 5 and 10 cent store, three firemen were burned to death and several others fatally or seriously injured.

The building, a three-story structure, was completely wrecked. Among those buried under the debris is Fire Chief Riley.

The flames started in the basement, it is said, and spread rapidly to the upper floors, which were occupied by offices and a school.

The firemen battled with the flames from the roof and third floor, when suddenly the whole interior of the structure gave way, carrying eight firemen to the basement.

After burning for five hours, the fire was under control at 11 o'clock, with an estimated property loss of $150,000.

CHAUFFEUR'S BRIDE GUARDED BY MOTHER

Little Atlanta Heiress Is Being Spirited Abroad, Leaving Him Behind.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Guarded by her mother, Mrs. W. A. Spear, and R. A. Rambo, who says he is a friend of the family, Mrs. Russell Thomas, who married her mother's chauffeur, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, and is at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Thomas was hurriedly brought here to get her away from her husband, who was left behind in Atlanta, and was kept ignorant of the departure of his wife, who is heiress to the estate of her grandfather, John Silvey. She will come into $1,125,000 when she becomes of age.

The mother will sail with Mrs. Thomas for Europe tomorrow. The plans have been kept from the husband. The girl seems not very happy over being brought away from the husband, but she is not permitted to speak to any one. The party has connecting rooms on the second floor of the Astor, and Rambo conducts the business for the family.

Mrs. Thomas is only eighteen, and was married on Tuesday in Atlanta.
